I Will Not Be Shaken Sermon Series

Beginning next week we will begin a three week sermon series entitled I Will Not Be Shaken. Many situations in life can shake a person’s faith. However, in Psalms 16:8 we find a way to have an unshakeable faith and unshakeable resolve. The Psalmist says “I have set the LORD always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken.” The sermon titles are I Will Focus, I Will Surrender, and I Will Forever and Ever. Our faith must be unshaken so we can carry out the work of the Lord. Dave

A Call for Lights

Being in the dark can be quite eerie and sinister at times simply because the darkness cloaks the unknown. Sometimes life presents times where we are simply in the dark. These dark unknowns create situations that can produce very fearful tense moments in our lives. When we are able to shed some light on a situation, we see clearly how to handle and deal with life’s unexpected problems. In God’s word we read “Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.” Psalms 119:105 God’s Word sheds light on life’s path helping us to live a meaningful life.

Once there was a man who was petrified because of a frightening turn of events, the repercussions of which could mean his life would be in danger. This man took care of a jail that was struck by an earthquake causing the jail doors to be opened. This event could free the prisoners left in his care. He called for lights and rushed in to see if the prisoners were still in their cells. Two men of God awaited him: Paul and Silas. He fell before them and asked a question, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved”. He wanted words of light, he wanted light to be shed on his condition, and he wanted salvation. Paul and Silas “spoke the word of the Lord to him”. The word of the Lord was just like in Psalms 105:105 where it says “The word God was a lamp unto his feet and a light unto his path”. When the jailer called for lights to see if the prisoners were still there, he unknowingly also called for the light of God. We all need to call for the light of God to shine our way in life, which is through his Word. The dark unknowns of life can be dispelled with the Word of the Lord. Acts 16:29-32 DAVE
