MOSES & THE RED SEA: Nine-year-old Joey, was asked by his mother what he had learned in Sunday school. "Well, Mom, our teacher told us how God sent Moses behind enemy lines on a rescue mission to lead the Israelites out of Egypt. When he got to the Red Sea, he had his army build a pontoon bridge and all the people walked across safely. Then, he radioed headquarters for reinforcements. They sent bombers to blow up the bridge and all the Israelites were saved." "Now, Joey, is that really what your teacher taught you?" his mother asked. "Well, no, Mom. But, if I told it the way the teacher did, you'd never believe it!"

Life’s Praises

It is easy to sing life's praises when things are going well. It is another to continue to praise when life is challenging. What prompts praise in our life? Is our ability to praise based on present circumstances or based on a broader life focus? Some are easily soured on life due to a few life situations while forgetting the many blessings still touching their life. What marks our focus?

In one of the psalms we read. . .

"(1) Praise the LORD! Praise, O servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD! (2) Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and forevermore! (3) FROM THE RISING OF THE SUN TO ITS SETTING, THE NAME OF THE LORD IS TO BE PRAISED!" ( Psalm 113:1-3)

This psalm begins (verse 1) and ends (verse 9) with the same expression: "Praise the LORD!" The Hebrew here is "hallal" and "yah" which viewed as "hallelu yah" is where we get the English "hallelujah".

As eternal as our Heavenly Father is, He is due praise "forevermore." Is our focus on Him in such a manner that we are able to praise Him through the day -- ALL DAY LONG -- from SUNUP TO SUNDOWN? If such praise has not become a part of our daily life, may we seek "from this time forth and forevermore" to make it more a part of our life. There is much for which we can and should be thankful and for which we can praise the Lord. Even in trying times we can praise the Lord for His sustaining power and the assurance of hope beyond this realm. May we remain focused to go through each day lifting up HALLELUJAHS to the Heavenly Father. borrowed
