Coldwater Church of Christ

January 29, 2012

Welcome to our services!

Rosie Arnold fell last week in her home and has hurt her knee. She is walking better now, but prayers are appreciated.

Shirley Ware has been ill lately. We're praying she is now feeling better and will be back with us today.

Doug Watson's mother has been having more health problems lately. Please remember her in your prayers.

We are saddened to learn that Cathleen's doctor believes she may be in the early stages of dementia. More testing will be done to confirm that diagnoses. Please remember Cathleen in your prayers as she undergoes these tests.

Edna has been having quite a bit of shoulder pain lately. Please remember her in your prayers.

A couple of good works that can be done for the church are bringing in food for the pantry, and attending the nursery. So, if one of your goals for this coming year is to get more involved, here's your chance. The nursery sign-up is on the bulletin board.

Thanks for your response to the need for nursery attendants. Several of you have stepped forward.

The Portage Church of Christ is hosting a dinner and a singing on February 10th starting at 6 p.m. The singing will start at 7. The fellowship meal will be provided by the Portage Church. These have been attended by our members in the past and they have always been uplifted.

**Please note that if we need to cancel services because of weather, an announcement will be placed on WTVB Radio, AM 1590. *****

Work of the Church

It was quite uplifting to see more saints signing up for the nursery. This indeed is an area of concern, but now others have joined in to assist. Thank you for thinking of the Work of the Church, the cause of Christ, and sacrificing your time for Him.

It is quite uplifting seeing our young women signing up in the nursery.

It was quite uplifting to see Keith stepping forward and using his ability to lead our singing for the cause of Christ.

It has been quite uplifting seeing young men stepping forward to lead singing and serve at the table.

It is quite uplifting to see people bringing in food for the pantry .

It is quite uplifting to see the heartfelt care given to comfort and encourage others who are experiencing difficult situations.

It is a quite uplifting to see the many children attending our Bible School.

On Sunday, April 22, Lowell Huffman, President of Camp Indogan, will be here to present the Camp Indogan work. This is in direct response to a crisis the Camp is now experiencing due to state regulations. The contribution that day will go to this good work.

It would be quite uplifting to see a great attendance of every member who is able to attend showing unity in spirit.
