Welcome to our Services.....February 15, 2015

Cathleen wasn't feeling well and wasn't able to be here to teach her Ladies' Class Wednesday evening. It is hoped she is feeling better and able to be with us today.

Patricia Graham, who attended here with her husband a while ago, has been diagnosed with breast cancer in both breasts and will be having a double mastectomy tomorrow. Please continue to pray for her.

Beth had neck surgery on Thursday. She is home and recovering well. Please continue to pray on her behalf also.

Nadia, the AIM student from Mexico that visited us recently, is doing well. Her family, who Pete and Tammie were able to visit during their trip there, sends thanks to us.

Wanda is having a lot of bad neck pain and is seeing a chiropractor for it. She requests prayers, though, for her cousin Linda Vanderpool who was just diagnosed with lymphoma. Linda will be having discussions with the doctor to decide the proper treatment. Please remember her, and Wanda, in your prayers.

Ladies - be on the lookout for more information regarding our annual Ladies' Luncheon which will be held in May.

The HIS group will be getting together and sewing quilts and stuffed animals every other Friday from 1-3 beginning on March 13th (moved from the 6th). Please join us if you're able. Bring your portable sewing machine and sewing scissors if you have them. There are plenty of "non-sewing" jobs if you don't want to sew.

19 "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, 20 but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.
Matthew 6:19-21

Be Warmed and Be Filled

As the young man went in to worship, a few in the lobby greeted him; nervously he smiled back. As he made his way to a seat, inwardly he felt like screaming, “SOMEBODY PLEASE HELP ME”. He tried very hard and with great difficulty was able to listen to the lesson, at the end of which he responded. He confessed his needs and at the close of service was surrounded by many with words of encouragement, hugs, and other signs of love. He left the service feeling much better but soon found himself facing his old problems. Again he began to cry inwardly, Help Me’.

The question that next comes to mind is, how will this story end? Were those encouraging words and other signs of love there to help? Were these good people watching his needs and fulfilling them? Would you help?

“What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can his faith save him? If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, and one of you says to them, Depart in peace, be warmed and filled,’ but you do not give the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit? Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead” (James 2:14-17).

As we grow in love and numbers, by God’s grace at Coldwater, let us be watchful. Let us pray for strength that we may be able to know when there is a cry for help and that we may be strong enough to care. Then we can give them warmth and fulfillment.
