Coldwater Church of Christ

Welcome to our services! February 10, 2013

POTLUCK NEXT SUNDAY. PLEASE STAY IF YOU'RE ABLE.

The funeral service for Dick Trine was this past Wednesday. Please remember Cornet family and Carol, Tom's mom. Several of our group was in attendance.

A new Sunshine Basket is in the works. This one will be for an elderly couple. Please bring any donations you'd like to contribute and place them on the table in the vestibule. Thanks to everyone who has contributed in the past.

During the potluck next Sunday we will celebrate and honor those who have been married for 50 years and up. An ad was put in the Shopper's Guide inviting the public. If you know anyone who we could honor in this way, please invite them to our services and the potluck following.

We will be having a Ladies Luncheon in April. This will include a meal, a devotional and some surprises! More information on this fun time for the ladies upcoming luncheon.

Coming soon: Camp Indogan Lock-In which will be March 15th. Applications for the Lock-In will be available soon.

Don't forget to invite anyone who might benefit from the Financial Seminar we will be having on March 24th -25th. Steve Diggs will be our speaker. There's a flyer on the wall near the bulletin board with more information.

There are several new fellowship opportunities added to the "Upcoming Events" section. Please mark your calendars.

We have received 2 more prayer requests in our box. One is requesting prayers for an affordable car and the other for a job. It is a blessing for us to offer prayers for those in need. Please remember these two requests in your daily prayers.

The 20th Street Church of Christ has invited us on an overnight trip to the Creation Museum in Petersburg, KY, on March 15th-16th. More information is on the bulletin board.

A. None. Moses led the people of Israel out of Egypt. It was Noah who was on the Ark.

True Love

Today is marked on the calendar as "Valentine's Day". Have we chosen only one day a year to focus on love or is it of great significance to us every day of our life? Love is a topic much talked about. It is written about in words of poetry and prose

I don't think "True Love" can truly be understood without recognizing first of all how God has revealed His love (and what characterized that love) and secondly how we are to extend love as well. To find it and understand it is not to simply be on the receiving end, but the GIVING end because that is what "True Love" is; a SELFLESS GIVING love!

Not all that is called love is actually "True Love." Sometimes what some call love is selfish instead of selfless. It is being about a steadfast relationship it is about what is in it for "me".

John exhorted. . .

"(20) If anyone says, 'I love God,' and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. (21) And this commandment we have from him: WHOEVER LOVES GOD MUST ALSO LOVE HIS BROTHER." (1 John 4:20-21)

With "True Love" there is a complete package to be kept in mind. Remember Jesus also exhorted to love even our enemies as we also pray for those who would persecute us. (Matthew 5:44) Love is always a right action whatever the relationship, because "True Love" keeps the best interests of others in mind. Is that not what God has done for us?

God's love was made manifest on our behalf. Is that same love being evidenced in our own life? If it is, then we are revealing our appreciation for it and will experience the power of it in building genuine and God glorifying relationships as we draw the ultimate focus toward God who "first loved us." (1 John 4:19) May the manner in which we love help those around us come to understand what "True Love" is truly all about!
