Coldwater Church of Christ

Welcome to our Services.....February 15, 2015

Potluck is today. Please stay and eat with us if you can.

Harold is having some intense pain right now. Karen took him to the ER yesterday for treatment. He was given a shot and sent home with some pain medication. Please pray for Harold and for Randy and Karen as they care for him. They won't be here today because of the bad roads in their area.

Cathleen still isn't feeling well but is improving.

We are thankful that Patricia Graham, who had a double mastectomy last week, has learned there was no other cancer.

David had a cataract removed and a stent put in one eye. He's healing but still has some blurriness until it heals. Thanks Ben for taking the bible class and Pete for taking over the preaching today. The other eye will be done March 5th.

Ella Boston's brother has been diagnosed with cancer. He'll be having chemo treatments. Please include him in your prayers.

Beth's surgery went well and she is recovering at home with less pain. Please continue to pray for her.

Some of you know Mildred Barrett. Wanda let us know last Sunday that she had passed away. Please pray for her family at this sad time.

Harold, Randy and Karen have been having some sinus issues. They were unable to be with us last week. It is hoped they are better this week.

Charles and Ella are snowed in this morning.

The Weaver family has been having problems with illness as well. Please keep them in your prayers.

Ladies - be on the lookout for more information regarding our annual Ladies' Luncheon which will be held in May.

The HIS group will be getting together and sewing quilts and stuffed animals every other Friday from 1-3 beginning on March 13th. All ladies are invited to join in and bring a friend.

Be Warmed and Be Filled

As the young man went in to worship, a few in the lobby greeted him; nervously he smiled back. As he made his way to a seat, inwardly he felt like screaming, “SOMEBODY PLEASE HELP ME”. He tried very hard and with great difficulty was able to listen to the lesson, at the end of which he responded. He confessed his needs and at the close of service was surrounded by many with words of encouragement, hugs, and other signs of love. He left the service feeling much better but soon found himself facing his old problems. Again he began to cry inwardly, ‘Help Me’.

The question that next comes to mind is, how will this story end? Were those encouraging words and other signs of love there to help? Were these good people watching his needs and fulfilling them? Would you help?

“What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can his faith save him? If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, and one of you says to them, Depart in peace, be warmed and filled,’ but you do not give the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit? Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead” (James 2:14-17).

As we grow in love and numbers, by God’s grace at Coldwater, let us be watchful. Let us pray for strength that we may be able to know when there is a cry for help and that we may be strong enough to care. Then we can give them warmth and fulfillment.
