Potluck Today!

We are honoring marriage today so please stay if you're able.

Wendi Baker is back in the hospital with asthma problems. Please keep her in your prayers not only for this latest development but also that she will be a candidate for a procedure being performed at Henry Ford Hospital that could relieve some of her problems. They have an appointment in March to see if she is a candidate.

Wendi Baker's cousin and her husband, who are missionaries in Uganda, are returning to the US to bury their newborn baby who was born with premature lungs and has passed away. Please keep this family in your prayers during this terrible event in their lives.

Ruth has been under the weather lately and couldn't be with us Wednesday evening. Please keep her in your prayers.

Cathleen was sick last Sunday. Fortunately she was feeling better and was able to be with us Wednesday evening.

The nursery has been painted. Thanks Sean. It looks great.

Don't forget to invite anyone who might benefit from the Financial Seminar we will be having on March 24th -25th. Steve Diggs will be our speaker. There's a flyer on the wall near the bulletin board with more information. We are in need of volunteers to watch the young children in the back during both seminars. Please see Dave or Loretta if you'd be willing to take this on.

A new Sunshine Basket is in the works. This one will be for an elderly couple. Please bring any donations you'd like to contribute and place them on the table in the vestibule Ladies, mark your calendars! We will be having a "Lavender and Lace Ladies Luncheon" on April 13th beginning at 12:00 p.m. ☺. This will include beautiful decorations, a special meal, a devotional, singing, games and prizes. Please plan on attending this time of Christian fellowship with sisters in Christ and bring your friends. There will be a sign-up sheet on the bulletin board so we can know how many to expect. It promises to be a special time for all.

Coming soon: Camp Indogan Lock-In, March 15th. Applications for the Lock-In will be available soon.

"Best Man!"

When you think of brides, what is the picture that comes to mind? Do you picture a woman, in all her beauty, walking down the aisle? Is it hard to picture anything more beautiful than a woman adorned in a flowing white gown, stutter-stepping toward the front of a crowded auditorium?

I’ve attended lots of weddings. I’ve been a member of the wedding party. I’ve performed many wedding ceremonies. I have watched those assembled wait in great anticipation for the point at which the bride would come through the door and begin the long walk up the aisle. I even got married once myself. I remember waiting next to my selected “best man” (and the rest of our wedding party) for the doors at the back of the auditorium to open and my bride to walk in with her arm hooked in the arm of her father. However, as my bride came down the aisle, she did not have her eyes on my friend, but she focused on me as the “best man” as I was focused on her as the best lady. She belonged to the BRIDEGROOM and we were prepared to enter into a lifelong commitment. After thirty plus years she is still the love of my life. I am her husband and she is my wife. We belong to each other.

As John the Baptist was preparing the way for Jesus and was told that many were going over to Him, John rejoiced. He wasn’t concerned about losing his following, because it was the Christ Who was to be exalted. (John 3:26-28) John knew who the truly “best man” was and faithfully directed others toward Jesus.

John stated...

“(29) THE ONE WHO HAS THE BRIDE IS THE BRIDEGROOM. The friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly at the bridegroom’s voice. Therefore this joy of mine is now complete. (30) HE MUST INCREASE, BUT I MUST DECREASE.” (John 3:29-30)

The relationship should be seen as one of lifelong commitment to Him; an inseparable union marked by faithfulness, joy, and steadfast love.
