Coldwater Church of Christ

Welcome to our Services..... March 13, 2016

Don't forget: Monthly potluck is next Sunday! Make plans to stay and eat with us.

Wendi Baker is once again in Oaklawn Hospital, room 302. Please call, send a card, text or visit, and definitely pray for healing.

Joyce will be having surgery Tuesday to correct a problem with her toes. She'll likely be off her feet for a while afterward. Please pray for a successful surgery and quick recovery.

Beth's surgery to repair her voice will take place this week as well. Please pray for her.

Cathleen will have surgery on her toe soon. Prayers on her behalf are appreciated.

Several people have expressed an interest in teaching Kid's Church on an occasional basis. There is a sign-up sheet on the bulletin board.

New Directories: The new directories are available. Pick up pages to put in your old binder today. If you don't have an old binder, pick one up with the new pages. Thanks Kathy for all your hard work on this project!

The carpet and paint have been narrowed down to 2 possibilities. Therefore, you will have one more opportunity to state your preference. There are two photos of the carpet contenders, and paint samples, in the vestibule. Please fill out a slip and pick your favorite! The painting will be done in April and the carpet will be installed in May.

DATE CHANGE! The Ladies' Day will be Saturday, April 30th. We'd like to get a count so we can plan the food, etc. so please sign-up on the sheet on the bulletin board. Bring a friend! There are flyers on the table for you to take and share!

Please fill out the prayer request sheets if you have a request and give it to Loretta. They are on the back table in the auditorium.

Upcoming Events: Mark your calendars...

To Be Like Us

Perhaps the young American actor, Ty Simpkins, expresses how many have felt about their grade school experience: "Recess and lunch are the best." So what would you think about some fifth graders that would voluntarily give up some recess time in order to learn a new skill?

There is a fifth grade class in Peoria, Illinois, that has been skipping recess to learn sign language. The reason? They have a deaf classmate. Rhemy Elsey, a fifth-grader at Mark Bills Middle School in Peoria, was born mostly deaf. While he hears partly with the help of a cochlear implant, he is also accompanied by an American Sign Language interpreter, Tammy Arvin, to assist him in communicating with his teachers and classmates.

Many of Rhemy's classmates have taken it upon themselves to bridge the gap in communicating with him. They started a club that meets once a month during recess to learn sign language. Rhemy's interpreter teaches the course. At this point, they have learned enough to have basic conversations with him. They all seem to enjoy it.

"It's like they want to be like me," Rhemy reported.

But the biggest difference, says Arvin, is the one she has seen in Rhemy. She says he has "come out of his shell" and has been a lot more confident than he was before. *God desires to have a relationship with each one of us. But our sin separates us from Him (Isaiah 59:1-2). Nevertheless, God still loves us, and He even wants to save us from our sins (1 Timothy 2:4).

So, to communicate His great love for us and to save us, God became like us in the person of His Son, Jesus. "Therefore, in all things [Jesus] had to be made like His brethren, that He might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. For in that He Himself has suffered, being tempted, He is able to aid those who are tempted" (Heb. 2:17-18).

He became like one of us to identify with us and then to save us. "He Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by His wounds you have been healed" (1 Peter 2:24). He paid the price for our sins by dying on the cross.
