March 25, 2012

Welcome to our services!

Several of the men met for a Men's Breakfast Saturday morning. A good time was had by all.

No report yet on Cathleen's latest brain tests. Please continue to pray for her.

Huey had the other eye operated on Monday of last week. He is recovering well.

Adrian Otis is still in the hospital with lung problems. Please continue to pray for this little one.

Joyce Akers has been fighting illness recently. It is hoped she will be well enough to be here today.

Congratulations Tim and Barb Slomer. Tim announced last week that they celebrated their 17th anniversary!

We want to send out a "thank you" to Charles and Vicki Scott for supplying the fried chicken for our potlucks. They bring it in even if they are not able to stay! Thanks to all those that bring food and stay for our monthly fellowship meal.

Loretta will be planning a trip to the zoo this summer. We'll plan on bringing a sack lunch and eating on the grounds after the zoo. Date and time will be announced at a later date.

Don't forget the food pantry is available if you know someone in need of food.

If you notice that someone isn't here that should be, give them a call. It lets them know someone is missing them.

June 2nd at 11 a.m., there will be a Memorial Service for Red Burroughs, Wanda's husband, who passed away in Florida recently. It will take place here at the building. Beth is organizing a luncheon to follow and will let us know how we can help. Thanks Beth for your service to others.

2 Timothy 4:5-9 As for you, always be sober-minded, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry. For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come.

Beyond Ourselves!

There are a number of individuals in the pages of Scripture who may come to mind when we think of those who frequently turned to God in PRAYER. Perhaps Daniel comes to mind. Even our Lord spent much time in PRAYER. Who else comes to mind?

Nehemiah was a strong leader. He could not be easily discouraged, but was instead a great encourager of others in the face of the monumental work of rebuilding the walls around Jerusalem and seeking to get God's people back on track spiritually. As I look at Nehemiah's life it is quite evident the role PRAYER played. He knew it was with God's help that such a work could be completed successfully regardless of the opposition faced. In the very first chapter of the book of Nehemiah, as this man of God (presently serving in Persia as cupbearer to King Artaxerxes) heard of the condition of things in Jerusalem we read...

“As soon as I heard these words I sat down and wept and mourned for days, and I CONTINUED fasting and PRAYING BEFORE THE GOD OF HEAVEN.” (Nehemiah 1:4)

As Nehemiah PRAYED he acknowledged his sin and the sin of the people and humbly called upon God. He acknowledged God's promises and noted God's great power and strong hand. He then ended this prayer with...

““Oh Lord, let your ear be attentive to the PRAYER OF YOUR SERVANT, and to the PRAYER OF YOUR SERVANTS WHO DELIGHT TO FEAR YOUR NAME, and give success to your servant today, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man.’ Now I was cupbearer to the king.” (Nehemiah 1:11)

Nehemiah PRAYED to God before going into the presence of the king. When the king wondered about the sad look on Nehemiah's face and realized there was something he desired to do, before Nehemiah responded to the king's question he again PRAYED (apparently to himself) “to the God of heaven.” (Nehemiah 2:4) Then as we continue through the book we find Nehemiah PRAYING again and again. When taunted by an enemy, HE PRAYED. (4:4) When plotted against, HE PRAYED. (4:9) When falsely accused, HE PRAYED. (6:8) When considering his enemies, HE PRAYED. (6:14) When assembling the people, HE PRAYED. (9:6) When confronting others, HE PRAYED. (13:14) And when focusing on getting all things in order according to God's Will, HE PRAYED for God to remember him. (13:22, 29, 30) It appears there was almost nothing Nehemiah approached without PRAYER. borrowed
