Jesus Begins His Ministry
—Luke 3, 4

Wilderness Maze

After Jesus was baptized, He went into the wilderness for 40 days. There, the devil tempted Him three times, but Jesus did not give in.

Find the path that takes Jesus through the devil's temptations and out into the world to begin His ministry. Write the words you find along the path in order on the lines below to find two responses Jesus made to Satan.

Welcome to our Services.....May 10 , 2015

Our monthly potluck is next week in honor of mothers. The men will be cooking and cleaning up afterward. Ladies, enjoy!

Wanda let us know that Rosie has been laid to rest in Flint, IN by her family. There are still no plans for a service.

Bob had hernia surgery recently. He is home recovering. Please keep him in your prayers.

Marvin has been having problems with one of his eyes. No news on how he is coming along. Please pray for healing.

Paul and Roxann are doing well but don't plan on returning to Michigan until the middle of June.

Joyce will be seeing the doctor on the 19th to discuss findings of some recent tests. Please pray that a treatment can be found.

Wanda left a magnifying glass here the day of the Ladies Luncheon. If you have found it or have it, please see Loretta.

Our trip to the Tabernacle in Plymouth had to be canceled because of bad weather. Cathleen will be re-scheduling and we'll let you know when that will be.

The H.I.S sewing group will meet again on May 29th at 1:00. We hope to have enough quilts and stuffed animals to get 10 care packages ready to give out. Thanks ladies for all your work on this program. If you are willing to take quilts home and tie them, please see Loretta.

Erin's graduation open house is May 30th. More information is on the invitation on the bulletin board.

The Schultz Lewis commodity item for this year is paper towels and sauces (cheese, pizza, etc.) If you'd like to help, bring your items in by the July pickup date. We've got a good pile going.

Our item to help feed the children at Camp Indogan this year is potato chips. They need around 40 large bags. Bring in your bags by the end of May if you can help. Thank you.

The camp dinner is June 6th beginning at 5 p.m. There will be a live auction as well as a "yard sale" to be held at the dinner. They are looking for donations for these fund raisers. Items will be accepted at the camp before the dinner begins.

To save space, a few people that have been on the prayer list for a long time were removed. If you'd like them added back on, let Loretta know. Thanks.

A Mother's Scar

A little boy invited his mother to attend his elementary school's first teacher-parent conference. To the little boy's dismay, she said she would go. This would be the first time that his classmates and teacher met his mother and he was embarrassed by her appearance. Although she was a beautiful woman, there was a severe scar that covered nearly the entire right side of her face. The boy never wanted to talk about why or how she got the scar.

At the conference, the people were impressed by the kindness and natural beauty of his mother, despite the scar, but the little boy was still embarrassed and hid himself from everyone. He did, however, get within earshot of a conversation between his mother and his teacher, and heard them speaking. "How did you get the scar on your face?" the teacher asked. The mother replied, "When my son was a baby, he was in a room that caught on fire. Everyone was too afraid to go in because the fire was out of control, so I went in. As I was running toward his crib, I saw a beam coming down and I placed myself over him, trying to shield him. I was knocked unconscious but, fortunately, a fireman came in and saved both of us." She touched the burned side of her face. "This scar will be permanent, but to this day, I have never regretted doing what I did."

At this point, the little boy came out running towards his mother with tears in his eyes. He hugged her and felt an overwhelming sense of the sacrifice that his mother had made for him. He held her hand tightly for the rest of the day. (From Chicken Soup For the Soul)

In like manner, Jesus Christ bears the scars He received in His efforts to redeem us. "Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!" (2 Cor. 9:15)
