Sunday School

Is Sunday School important or is it a dead tradition? Hardly! Sunday School is a time of Bible study, a time to be trained, a time to be enlightened, a time to learn what the will of the Lord really is, and a time to prepare children for a life in Christ. To have a successful Sunday School, you have to have dedicated Christian Educators who love the Lord and see it as their mission.

To our Christian educators: we will be getting to together soon to set goals for growth, talk about curriculum, and encourage one another. Sunday School is important to the growth of the Church.

Our Christian Educators for Children:

Pete Baker: 6th-12th
Loretta Sherfield 3rd- 5th
Jennifer Shilling Kindergarten- 2nd
Vicki Hopkins Preschool 3 to 4 years old
Substitutes: Barb Slomers, Cindy Flaughter, Tammie Baker
Wednesday Children’s Bible Study: Tammie Baker
Adult Ladies Class in Fall: Tammie Baker

We do want to thank and show our appreciation to Tom, Wendy, Heidi, Barb, and many others over the years for teaching in our Sunday School. They have showed a great dedication to the youth of the congregation. The Bible says to give honor where it is due. Roman 13:17 So we give honor to teachers of gospel: past and present.

However, is Sunday School just for children? Certainly not! Adults need Sunday School and Wednesday night Bible Study as well. What a great example it is for adults to show the children just how important Sunday School is, and, show them that it is not just for children by attending themselves. We have a good adult attendance for Sunday School, so we thank you for your example, but let us grow in that area as well.

Let us rededicate ourselves to the Sunday School. We are planning to increase the Sunday attendance both in children and adults. How can you help? Bring yourself, bring your children, bring your grandchildren and bring another child from your neighborhood.
