What Happened?

Yesterday 11 workers of God stood ready to assist those in need with school supplies and clothes. Yes, the Give-Away Day was indeed a worthy cause and proved to be heartwarming.

Heartwarming knowing that the items donated did come from people who care about the work of the Church and expressing a giving heart toward people they don’t know. Proverbs 19:17 “Whoever is generous to the poor lends to the LORD, and he will repay him for his deed”

Heartwarming because 20 workers of God came together last Wednesday and worked to arrange and make packets of school supplies. 50 packets were given in the name of the Lord.

Heartwarming because of the smiles given by parents as they found something for their children, and saying thank-you as they were leaving.

Heartwarming because several of our young people experienced the joy of giving to the less fortunate.

Heartwarming because of the response from some of the children. One little boy ran to me and grabbed my waist, hugging me with tears in his eyes saying thank you. Also, another little boy of about 6, looked up and with a expression of gratitude simply said ‘thank you’. A group of 4 children practically in unison said “thank you” while holding bags of clothes. In their eyes you could see the genuine gratefulness.

The 141 men, women and children that attended was a record number of people assisted by the Coldwater Church of Christ in our annual Give-Way Day in the ten plus years that we have been conducting one. Our first Give-Away Day we had only 15 people. What made the difference: hard times, better advertising, or school supplies? I don’t know the answer, but it sure was heartwarming. I am ready for next year! Dave

More Heartwarming Giving

Another event that has taken place that is incredibly heartwarming is the recent gift to the Church by Lu Snyder. Lu passed away in late 2011, but even in death she was thinking about the Church, and Jesus Christ, that she loved so dearly. Lu has left her home to the Church to be used for the glory of God. Final preparations are about to be completed. Further information will be coming as it unfolds. Rosie, Lu’s dear friend, has been working tirelessly in this matter. Thanks so much Rosie, for everything you have done for us and for Lu!
