Making a Reservation

As the summer season is now upon us, many of us plan vacations and trips to places we want to visit. Usually, one of the first things we do is make a reservation. This of course is necessary to assure we have a place to stay when we arrive at our destination.

When we think about that final trip that all of us must make one day it is a very comforting thought to know our reservation has already been made. This reservation is described as: "An inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and does not fade away, reserved in heaven for you" (1 Peter 1:4).

We can be certain it is reserved and will be there ready for those who are in Christ Jesus when they pass from this life to their eternal home. No one, not even Satan, can take it away from us. Because Jesus said: "Great is your reward in heaven" (Matthew 5:12) and that we should: "Rejoice and be exceedingly glad."

In our earthly existence there are many things that last just for a short period of time. But this is not so with the reward waiting for Christians. We can have great assurance about our reservation. The apostle Paul said: "For we know that if our earthly house, this tent, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens"(2 Corinthians 5:1).

The question that each of us should ask is: "have I made my reservation?" If I haven't, then I need to be doing something about it.
