*****

Remember potluck next Sunday after services. Please plan on attending and staying for our fellowship meal.

Lincoln Weaver has been doing well. His next surgery will be the first week of December. Please continue to pray for this little one and his family as they care for him.

Ben will begin a series tonight entitled "Satan: Real or Myth". Please join us tonight for this informative series. Thanks Ben for your willingness to teach.

Cathleen had eye surgery Tuesday and it went well. Please continue to remember her in your prayers.

Wanda's sister has passed away last week in Fort Wayne. Please keep her and the family in your prayers.

Ella wasn't with us last Sunday. She was feeling ill. It is hoped she will be better and able to be with us today.

Cindy would like to thank everyone for their prayers regarding her employment. It appears she will not have to work Sundays for now and therefore will not have to miss services. Thanks to God for this news.

Seven of our members showed up yesterday to help paint the boys' cabins at the camp. Thanks Dave, Loretta, Adam, Tom, Isaac, Jake and Charles for your help. We were able to get all but one section painted so the cabins will be freshly painted for the next camp season.

John 16:33: "I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."

The Christian Hope

Nothing is worse for a person than to be without hope in this life and eternity. The Apostle Paul reminds us of the hope Christians have when he says we are living “in hope of eternal life which God, who cannot lie, promised before time began” (Titus 1:2). Paul states that it is this hope that saves us (keeps us motivated to stay saved) (Romans 8:24). While the Christian hope should be at the essence and center of the Christian life, exactly what is this hope?

The Christian hope is the hope of Heaven. Those who have been saved by the grace of God have become “heirs of the hope of eternal life” (Titus 3:7). We are motivated to greater faithfulness because of the hope which is laid up for us in Heaven (Col. 1:5). Paul reminds us of the great hope we have when he says, “For we were saved in this hope, but hope that is seen is not hope; for why does one still hope for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance” (Rom. 8:24-25). Truly, without the hope of Heaven Christians would have nothing to look forward to after this life!

The Christian hope is the resurrection. Paul makes the point very clearly when he states, “If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men the most pitiable” (1 Cor. 15:19). If they only hope you and I had was right here in this old sinful world, how horrible life would be! However, the Christians hope goes beyond this world. Peter eloquently states the Christian hope saying, “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His abundant mercy has begotten us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead” (1 Peter 1:3). Death is not the end for the Christian. Paul said it so well to the Thessalonians. “But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus” (1 Thess. 4:13-14). If it were not for the resurrection, what would life be like? Just imagine if all we had to hope for was dying. borrowed
